

The Council of Christians and Jews, West of Scotland Branch

The leading nationwide forum for Christian - Jewish engagement

ANTISEMITISM: WHY IS IT STILL AN ISSUE, AND HOW CAN WE WORK TOGETHER TO ERADICATE IT?

As the issue of antisemitism finds its way into the headlines once again, we offer an opportunity to hear from both national and local experts and to discuss together this key issue facing not only Jewish people but society as a whole. We believe strongly that tackling antisemitism can be a key area of cooperation and unity between not only the Jewish and Christian communities in Glasgow, but amongst the wider community as well.

Our Featured Speaker:

Mark Gardner, Communications Director for the Community Security Trust (CST)

Also taking part in the panel discussion:

- Dr Stephen Innes, CCJ Scholar in Residence and Visiting Scholar at Strathclyde University
- Ephraim Borowski, Director of Scottish Council of Jewish Communities (SCOJeC)
- Revd Maggie McTernan, Assistant Priest, St Margaret's Newlands and Labour Councillor, Glasgow City Council
- Mirella Yandoli, Interfaith Programme Officer for the Church of Scotland
