

Make sure you're following us on social media to stay up to date with everything going on across the Methodist Church. Remember to share and tag us in your posts so that we can see the amazing things going on in your local area.

Find out more about the Communications team

Methodist Leaders Join Prayers for New Prime Minister

"As Church denominations, we share a vision of a society where the poorest and most marginalised are at the centre, where refugees are welcomed, where the environment is renewed, where a just economy enables the flourishing of all life."

The President and Vice-President of the Methodist Conference have joined other church leaders in a letter to Andy Burnham. The letter assures the new Prime Minister of the prayers of churches across Britain and offers partnership in working for justice and peace calling for a government "of integrity that pursues justice and peace and seeks to serve the common good."

Read the full letter here

Tolpuddle Martyrs Remembered by the President and Vice-President

One of the famous 'Tolpuddle Martyrs' has been commemorated in an "incredibly moving" graveside ceremony at a festival in their honour, attended by the President and Vice-President of the Methodist Church.

Read more here

An Epic Eclipse Journey to Spain

As churches across the Connexion prepare to mark August's solar eclipse with their communities, a Methodist local preacher will celebrate the rare event in Spain.

Esther Miller, from Oxfordshire, is travelling to Valencia, which will be one of the most dramatic places to view the eclipse, shortly before the sun sets.

Read more here

Find out how your church can get involved

"I've always had coping mechanisms as I think a lot of dyslexics do. I've always been open and honest about my dyslexia. I've never told anybody that I'm not."

The Revd Steve Sutton, a minister in the Bedfordshire, Essex and Hertfordshire District, is used to finding ways to ensure he can provide the best support for his churches and their members but, when it came to applying for grants, he needed some extra help himself. The district responded with a specially produced video. Watch the video below:

Read more about the Revd Steve's story here

Bicentenary at Borrowash

"The current worshipping congregation is a mixture of people who are both young and more mature, who continue to engage with the village to bring the light of Christ to Borrowash, as those who went before them did."

The people of Borrowash Methodist Church, part of the Derby Circuit, have celebrated the bicentenary of Methodism in the village.

Read more here

Methodist Church Continues Support in Venezuela

The Methodist Church is continuing to support communities affected by the horrific recent earthquake in the country. Watch the video below:

Have Your Say: The National Conversation

The National Conversation is a UK-wide listening initiative set up in response to the upsurge in disturbances, protests and riots communities have experienced over the last two years. You can respond to the survey as an individual or hold a group conversation. The deadline for responding is the end of August.

Have your say here

Disability Awareness Sunday 2026 'One Body, Many Parts'

Methodist churches around the UK are invited to mark Disability Awareness Sunday 2026. The official date is 27 September 2026, but churches can celebrate on a date that works for them.

The 2026 theme, 'One Body, Many Parts', celebrates the truth that the Church is not complete without people with disabilities. A free, creative service resource is available to download from charity Through the Roof, packed with ideas for the theme.

Read more here

Listen Again

BBC Radio Two: Pause for Thought

"I am stronger than I know" Deacon Sue Peat reflects on her experience of swimming in the sea for the first time since she was a child.

Listen here

BBC Radio Two: Pause for Thought

"Renewed gratitude" The Revd Matt Finch on a memorable family holiday to Holy Island.

Listen here

BBC Radio Two: Pause for Thought

"When everyone has what they need for life" The Revd Michaela Youngson on this week's theme, 'Dreams of Summer'.

Listen here

Be a Part of the Connexional Team

If you're interested in being a part of the Connexional Team or interested in volunteering with the Methodist Church, then take a look to see what roles are available. Please make sure to share if you know of anyone who may be interested.

Take a look at our job and volunteering opportunities

Find us on social media

